A hard working group from Dumfries & Galloway are rewarded for their green efforts Keep Scotland Beautiful presented The People's Project community group from Dumfries & Galloway with an environmental 'It's Your Neighbourhood' award for their garden project, at a ceremony at the Albert Halls, Stirling on Tuesday 1st November 2011. The group were rewarded for their year-round efforts in creating beautiful, clean and green neighbourhoods.

The People's Project, Dumfries, were awarded with a Developing level of achievement.

The People's Project garden is an exciting development, where a derelict piece of land has been donated to local schools and youth organisations to teach young people about gardening. They've been busy clearing the site this year and plan to grow vegetables in the future.

In its seventh year in Scotland, the It's Your Neighbourhood campaign is ideally suited to volunteer-led community gardening projects or groups who aim to clean up and green up their local area, whether it is the estate where they live, a piece of communal ground or the space outside a community building. The campaign is inclusive and non-competitive, and welcomes groups of all sizes. It is all about bringing members of the community together to make a positive change to the place where they live, work or spend their leisure time.

Derek Robertson, Chief Executive of Keep Scotland Beautiful, and master of ceremonies at the presentations said: "It's Your Neighbourhood, a Royal Horticultural Society campaign run in Scotland by Keep Scotland Beautiful, empowers groups across Scotland to change the areas they live in for the better - for their own benefit, their community, and for visitors alike. These groups should all be praised for the results they achieve year on year, and we look forward to seeing other areas of Scotland improved by It's Your Neighbourhood groups in 2012."

It's Your Neighbourhood communities were visited by an assessor during the Summer. The assessors examine three themes during their informal visit – community participation, environmental responsibility and gardening achievement.
